April 2017 Newsletter

With the month of April, come many things. One thing that is dreaded by most is known as “Spring Cleaning.” You may wonder, “Why would spring be so closely associated with cleaning?” Some suggest that spring cleaning can be traced back to the Jewish celebration of Passover. Passover is the remembrance of when the Angel of Death “passed over” the homes of Jews who obediently spread the blood of sacrificed lambs over their doors. Those who did not have the blood markings woke up in the middle of the night finding their first born dead. This included Pharaoh to which he ordered/allowed the Israelites to leave Egypt. The Israelites left in such a hurry they did not allow their bread to rise. To remember this event Jewish families do not eat anything with yeast during the week of Passover. In preparation, they meticulously clean their entire homes to ensure that there is not even a crumb of leavened bread within their home. The night before Passover begins a traditional hunt for crumbs throughout the home by candlelight is done. This traditional cleansing event is called bedikat chamitz.

Through the course of time and for various reasons some products have accumulated in the SCP yard.
